SENTENCES PASSED IN FEDERAL COURT

Hum Collins and Louisville Boys Get Two Years in Atlanta
—Other Penalties

Humboldt A. Collins and four other Louisville men, convicted in federal court here of participating in the robbery of the D. L. Moore distillery in Mercer county on the night of March 10th last, were sentenced to serve two years in the Atlanta penitentiary by Judge A. M. J. Cochran Tuesday morning. The four men who received the same penalty as Collins were Henry McCutcheon, colored, Victor J. Norton, S. L. Brashers and J. R. Brashers. Two Lawrenceburg boys, caught in the prohibition officers' dragnet, John W. Boggess and John B. Gordon, were let off lighter by the judge after earnest pleas by a delegation of leading men and women from the Anderson county capital. Judge Cochran indicated he might also reduce these sentences. He gave Boggess one year and Gordon six months in the Madison county jail.

Judge Cochran passed sentence on all who had been convicted at last week's term of federal court here and who had not accepted sentence sooner. Others who were sentenced at this time and their penalties were: Owen Walker, colored, of Richmond, on plea of guilty for selling liquor, six months in Madison county jail; Mrs. Spicie Gentry, Richmond, selling liquor, six months in jail here; Allen Azzill, Richmond, transporting and possessing liquor; one year and a day in the Atlanta penitentiary; Pat Crews, Richmond, same charge, three months in jail here. The charge against Ada Wilson, Winchester negroess, caught here with four Winchester negroes with a car full of liquor on the street some months ago by police, was nolleed by District Attorney Smith, as she received a stiff penalty in circuit court.

Attorney Clem Huggins, of Louisville, filed motions and grounds for a new trial for Collins and McCutcheon. Judge Cochran overruled the motion, and appeal was granted to U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals at Cincinnati. Their bonds of $7,500 were continued in force pending this appeal. District Attorney Smith filed motion for forfeiture of the truck owned by Boggess and the two Mills trucks used in transporting the whisky away from the D. L. Moore distillery.

When Owen Walker was called before the judge and asked if he had anything to say, he told the judge he had been confined in jail here for almost a year on conviction in the lower court. He said he had quit the business and Judge Cochran seemed about to "go easy" on him when the district attorney after consulting with U. S. Commissioner Bennett told the judge that he didn't believe Walker would quit; that he perhaps thought he would, but he didn't believe it. Judge Cochran then gave Walker the six-months' sentence, and warned him he'd send him to the penitentiary next time, and could send him as long as five years on the charge. Judge Cochran also warned Mrs. Gentry that she'd go to the penitentiary if convicted again on this charge in his court. In order that she might help her daughter with her bail, Judge Cochran allowed Mrs. Gentry to bring her sentence on June 1st instead of immediately.

When he sentenced the prisoners in the Moore distillery case, Victor Norton told the judge that Gordon had told the truth about being compelled to go with the men on the truck of whisky. He said also that the Brashers boys were not present either, and he felt in justice to them he should say so. He also declared that Collins was not present at the time nor had he conspired with anyone about the distillery raid. Norton further declared that he had hired his own attorney and no one else had anything to do with it.

The Lawrenceburg delegation which made the plea for Boggess and Gordon to the judge was composed of J. W. Gaines banker State Senator H. V. Bell, R. H. Lillard, L. H. Carter, Squire Gordon, Holmes Gordon, Cal P. Snyder, Dr. C. W. Kavanaugh Mrs. W. T. Bond, Mrs. R. H. Lillard, Mrs. Belle Walker, and Mrs.

Wells. Mr. Gaines said that Gordon is a member of the church and Sunday school, and it was to save him and the other boy that they came to plead for mercy to the Judge at the request of many prominent citizens of Lawrenceburg. One of the ladies present said that they represented the mothers and good women of Lawrenceburg; that these boys were not criminals but had been lead off and they hoped the Judge would be lenient with them.

Judge Cochran replied that he might have been more lenient with Boggess and Gordon if they had not tried to thwart justice. He said they had not told the truth, especially Boggess. He said he appreciated the feeling of the good women and men but it was his duty to make the penalties so heavy that other young men would be afraid to violate the law. The Judge declared that there had been one robbery after another in that section of the state, raids on distillery and whisky burglary, all in the same neighborhood. Judge Cochran said if he let these boys off, someone else's good boy would come along with the same plea. He said they had begged so hard that he would let down a peg or two, at that, from his original intentions and might abate the sentences some after careful thought later.

Late Monday the jury was set aside and the Miller et al. cases were continued to a special term of court at Richmond May 31. The continuance came after A. L. Durkin, representing the Pennsylvania state prohibition director, testified that two permits on which the defendants were accused of having removed illegally 1,114 cases of whisky from central Kentucky distilleries, were stolen from the Pennsylvania director's office. The defense, pleading that this was new matter, asked for a continuance for time to prepare a case. J. R. Barrett and A. C. Thompson, secretary and treasurer, respectively of the Frankfort Distillery, incorporated, testified to the amount of whisky alleged to have been removed from September 28 to December 27 by the defendants. They stated that Miller paid for 392 cases removed in three lots, for which he paid $1120. Those removals were on permits which the distillery accepted as regular.

SAWYER SMITH HAS NOTHING TO SAY

Sawyer A. Smith, U. S. District Attorney for the Eastern District of Kentucky, hasn't a word to say in regard to the suggestions in Lexington newspapers that he may be a candidate for the republican nomination for governor of Kentucky next year. He said so himself in the federal building here Tuesday morning.

Mr. Smith simply declared that the suggestions were news to him and he had no comment to make upon them. Those who have watched his course since his appointment as district attorney have felt that Sawyer Smith's friends wouldn't overlook the unusual talents he displays for leadership, initiative, energy and ability.

BIG COURT STARTS WITH MURDER CASE

Rucker and Garrett On Trial For Killing of Oscar Van Sant
—List of the Juries

The Madison circuit court jumped right into the midst of a murder trial when Judge Shackelford convened it for the May term Tuesday morning. The trial was that of Frank Garrett and Oscar Rucker charged with killing Oscar Van Sant on the road near Bearwallow several months ago. The defendants are represented by Attorneys G. Murray Smith and George Ross.

Judge Shackelford stressed violations of the liquor law and carrying concealed deadly weapons in his charge to the grand jury when court first opened. Judge Shackelford delivered a mighty straight message to his grand jury and shot right to the heart of law violations as is his custom. He doesn't beat around the bush or do things half way, when it comes to handling the work of the criminal element.

The grand jury is composed of D. Willis Kennedy, foreman, C. J. Turner, Joe Ginter, George D. Simmons, L. H. Maffett, Elvada Tudor, C. P. Wagers, W. T. Olds, D. C. Biggerstaff, Ed S. Cruise, Jonah Cox and John McWilliams.

The petit juries are made up as follows:

Allen Clinton, Wm. C. Evans, Leroy McKinney, John M. Park, Frank Hord, Oliver Maupin, B. S. Terrill, H. M. Thorpe, J. Walker McKinney, Oakley Wells, B. J. Colton, Burgin Cosby, W. H. James, J. S. Wagers, Boyd Powell, Henry Pearson, Sam Ross, Tom Ballard, H. B. Rayburn, T. E. Hendren, C. H. Burdette, R. E. Maupin, Robt. Simpson, Logan Alexander, J. N. Turley, M. T. Bybee, J. W. Arnold, J. Embury Park, Philip Long.

Reserve jurors: Zeke Forbes, A. B. Cornett, J. C. Hendricks, Ralph Parks, S. F. Baldwin, Melvin Brandenburg, Scott Parks, Nat Whittaker.

PLAN TO REORGANIZE COAL INDUSTRY

(By Associated Press)
Washington, May 2—Investigation by the commerce department into the underlying difficulties of the coal industry, such as intermittent employment and irregularity of production is being expedited, it was learned today with securing of data which might be used in the proposed administration plan for reorganization of the entire industry.

The hint of the administration's plan for meeting the coal strike situation, as divulged in high official circles today, did not consider any specific proposal for a settlement of the present operators and miners' controversy, but rather was more concerned with remedies for the fundamental difficulties underlying the general coal situation.

SAYS DAUGHERTY GOT LARGE FEE

(By Associated Press)
Washington, May 2—Report that Harry M. Daugherty, now Attorney General, received a fee of $25,000 from Charles W. The Arkansas senator said the report was based "upon public information." Senator Watson, republican, of Indiana, said he had talked with Daugherty about the report and that it is untrue.

M'CRACKEN FARMERS SELL STUFF IN POOL

(By Associated Press)

Paducah, Ky., May 2—McCracken county farmers are well satisfied with the start they have made this year in the co-operative buying and selling of their farm supplies and products, according to County Agent J. R. Bird.

Co-operative sales have been made on both poultry and sweet potatoes with good profits, he continued. Six carloads of poultry containing a total of 92,000 pounds have been sold and shipped for $23,000 or a net profit of $5,500 above the price paid by local dealers, while two cars of sweet potatoes have been shipped in the same manner, these bringing 80 and 85 cents a bushel here.

Much of the lime sulphur and nitrate of soda used in the county this year was purchased by the co-operative method, according to Mr. Bird. By means of the method, farmers were able to purchase lime sulphur at $12.50 a barrel, while nitrate of soda was obtained for $58 a ton. Sixteen per cent acid phosphate has been obtained by the same method for $16 a ton, it was said.

MADISON HI DEBATERS WIN FURTHER HONORS

Defeat All East Kentucky Speakers and Now Go To Lexington After Championship

The greatest literary achievement in the history of the city schools came to the Madison High School Monday when they won the championship of the Eastern Kentucky District in debate. This is the first time that the High School has ever won a district championship. The honor of winning this one is enhanced by the fact that the Eastern Kentucky district is the largest in the state—being composed of forty-two counties. The next largest district is ten counties. The Madison team won unanimously and received a beautiful silver loving cup as a trophy. The cup was quite a surprise to the Madison folk as they did not know arrangements had been made for such a handsome prize. The prize was the gift of The Citizen, Berea's enterprising paper.

Four high schools took part in the tournament Monday, Stanton, Pineville, Somerset and Madison. These high schools to gain the right of appearing in the tournament had previously won debates in their respective sub-districts. According to the announcement of the chairman at the beginning of the debate, the high school that won the tournament would have defeated seventeen high schools. That honor goes to Madison.

Madison met the Stanton Academy Monday afternoon at three o'clock and was victorious. At the same hour Pineville met Somerset and Pineville won. This threw Madison against Somerset for the finals in the college chapel last night. Madison's victory was a popular one, as numerous expressions in the audience indicated there was no question about the decision. The victory over Somerset is particularly unique in that Madison debated Somerset on April 7th and won unanimously on the negative. Monday night they met the affirmative against the same team and won unanimously. The judges were Professor G. C. Knight, of the University of Kentucky, Professor C. N. Shutt and Professor F. R. Matheny, of Berea College.

Madison had a closer contest with Stanton than with Somerset. Stanton took the position for total restriction of immigration—a position that the Madison team had never believed any team would take. They were expecting the issue to be unrestricted or a different method of restricting than the Dillingham bill. Madison deserves all the more credit for having the resourcefulness to meet an unexpected situation. The team's rebuttals in the afternoon debate in meeting this unexpected position of the negatives, were the best that they have ever made either this year or last. Harold Gabby was easily the star of the afternoon debate, his rebuttal altogether escaping the average, and saving the situation for Richmond. The rebuttal is the test of the debate and Gabby's effort will long be remembered in the history of Madison High.

In the night debate Somerset took the position of unrestricted. This created another situation that was not anticipated by the Richmond team. Again the team showed its resourcefulness in meeting an altogether new issue from the one they had met in the afternoon. This time Miss Pauline Ward rose to the emergency and her main speech and her rebuttal far surpassed anything she has previously done. She led in the night attack on Somerset and not a word of her rebuttal was lost—every sentence having telling effects. Lafon Wilson made a splendid presentation of his argument in the night debate. All his friends are expecting him to come thru and take his turn at the starring when the team goes to Lexington Thursday for the state tournament. The team as a whole deserves much credit for the way they have stuck to their task and for the fine literary honor that they have brought to the Madison High School.

youngsters deserves the highest credit for the honors they have already won, and all Eastern Kentucky will be 'pulling' strong for them in the finals against the best juvenile speakers in the state. We do not believe that Madison Hi will be found wanting when the final test comes.

Some Gratuitous Advice

Dispatches state that Republican leaders are urging District Attorney Sawyer A. Smith as the man for his party to nominate for governor next year. They couldn't find one who would make them a stronger candidate. It would be refreshing to see a man of his type at the head of his party, clean, aggressive, vigorous, the soul of honor and of remarkable ability. Sawyer A. Smith represents the coming young man in politics in a way that we often hear spoken of, but rarely see in the concrete example. And yet strong as our admiration for him personally, and feeling that he is well deserving and would amply measure up to the highest standard of any honor his party could confer upon him, we would advise him to go mighty slow about listening to the siren voices of the politicians who are hunting far and wide for a party leader at this time. Of course he isn't going to ask advice from a reliable Democratic organ like the Daily Register, but we're going to offer it gratuitously for the once, anyway, and that its to put any temptation to take the nomination next year behind him. The next governor of Kentucky is going to be a Democrat. We do not believe that even an able and capable leader as Sawyer Smith would make could rescue his party from the certain defeat that is approaching, when next it seeks to put a governor in the executive chair at Frankfort.

GAME WARDEN ASKS CO-OPERATION

Urges Good Citizens To Report Violation of Game Laws—Same as Other Statutes

The Daily Register has received a letter from District Game Warden Sam F. Gentry, of Stanford, appealing for that same degree of co-operation in prosecution of violations of the game laws of Kentucky that good citizens would give in case of other offenses. His letter which will be read with interest, follows:

Stanford, Ky., April 28.
 Editor Daily Register,
 Richmond, Ky.

I want to ask a favor of you through your valued paper, which has always been for the game and fish laws. Every sportsman should report all violators of the game and fish laws. If we are to have good hunting and fishing it is easy enough to seize fish from our public creeks and rivers if the sportsman and farmer refuse to see anything worth describing in court, but it would be a different matter if any responsible person would report them to the proper officials. There should be no distinction between the person who robs the fish streams and one who robs our rural banks. For instance John Doe has evidence against Jim Jones for killing quail out of season, he does not offer this evidence it is because he is either afraid or feels it none of his business. Suppose John caught Jim stealing cattle. He would not rest until he had Jim in jail and his fellow citizens would applaud his spirit of upholding the law. If we are to have more and better hunting and fishing you must have the spirit of John Doe as in the case of the cattle, and report all law violators of the game and fish laws. The game warden does the very best he can but he has lots of territory to cover and cannot be everywhere at once. If the fishermen and hunters place any value upon their recreation they should report all violators and not say let the game warden catch them. If your children are to have more and better fishing and hunting you must report all offenders of the game and fish laws, for we now realize what our forefathers did not. The extinction of the passenger pigeon and American bison and other species so few in number that they will never be numerous any more. So if we want better fishing and hunting and all lovers of wild things we must co-operate with the proper officials for the enforcement of the game laws, or the rest of our game birds will go the way of the bison and passenger pigeons. For better hunting and fishing, I am yours.

B. F. GENTRY,
 District Warden.

OWSLEY FARMER'S SUCCESS WITH REDS

(By Associated Press)

Booneville, Ky., May 2—S. J. Herndon, Owsley county farmer, has demonstrated to farmers in this section of the state what can be done with farm poultry flock when it is properly cared for and managed, according to County Agent P. M. Frye. Two years ago Mr. Frye assisted Mr. Herndon in getting a start with pure bred poultry, Rhode Island Reds being used as the foundation stock. In one month this year he marketed more than 100 dozen of eggs in addition to those used for hatching purposes on his own farm, according to Mr. Frye. The result of the project has been that Mr. Herndon is now a booster of pure bred poultry and an enthusiastic man in helping other farmers in this section of the state get a similar start, it was added.

FARMERS "SWAPPING" AGENCY IS STARTED

(By Associated Press)

Frankfort, Ky., May 2—Kentucky farmers will be given a chance to exchange or sell anything from a pair of shoes or a sewing machine to a mowing machine, a stallion or a farm, thru the agency of a new department that is being inaugurated by Commissioner of Agriculture W. C. Hanna.

The Commissioner has just had blanks printed and is sending them to farmers thruout the state for listing of the things they want to sell, exchange or buy. A weekly publication carrying the lists of things for sale or the needs of the farmers will be issued and mailed to farmers on the mailing list.

While the work will, for the present, be confined to selling and exchanging between farmers, eventually it is hoped that it will work into a real marketing bureau where the producer and consumer will be brought directly together. There are no real marketing laws in Kentucky as some other states have and the department has no way to check on supplies and prices after they leave the farm.

Some of the county farm bureaus, such as the Jefferson county organization, have been conducting exchange lists for past months. In the publications, the most of which are simply mimeographed sheets, the farmers list the things they want to sell and exchange such as setting of eggs, machinery, cows, hogs and horses and in fact anything of use on the farm.

"Henry Ford Was Right When He Said:

'The Tractor will enable the farmer to work fewer hours in the day, giving him more time to enjoy life. I believe the tractor will make farming what it ought to be—the most pleasant, the most healthful, the most profitable business on earth.'"

This tractor has done much—very much—in bringing true Mr. Ford's prophecy; for in it is a machine which has harnessed one of the most dependable, efficient, adaptable, economical sources of power in the world—a machine that saves from thirty to fifty per cent of the farmer's time—a machine which many farmers claim plows, harrows or drills as much ground in the same time as four, six or even eight horses. And more—a machine that takes care of every power job on the farm.

youngsters deserves the highest credit for the honors they have already won, and all Eastern Kentucky will be 'pulling' strong for them in the finals against the best juvenile speakers in the state. We do not believe that Madison Hi will be found wanting when the final test comes.

Some Gratuitous Advice

Dispatches state that Republican leaders are urging District Attorney Sawyer A. Smith as the man for his party to nominate for governor next year. They couldn't find one who would make them a stronger candidate. It would be refreshing to see a man of his type at the head of his party, clean, aggressive, vigorous, the soul of honor and of remarkable ability. Sawyer A. Smith represents the coming young man in politics in a way that we often hear spoken of, but rarely see in the concrete example. And yet strong as is our admiration for him personally, and feeling that he is well deserving and would amply measure up to the highest standard of any honor his party could confer upon him, we would advise him to go mighty slow about listening to the siren voices of the politicians who are hunting far and wide for a party leader at this time. Of course he isn't going to ask advice from a reliable Democratic organ like the Daily Register, but we're going to offer it gratuitously for the once, anyway, and that its to put any temptation to take the nomination next year behind him. The next governor of Kentucky is going to be a Democrat. We do not believe that even an able and capable leader as Sawyer Smith would make could rescue his party from the certain defeat that is approaching, when next it seeks to put a governor in the executive chair at Frankfort.

GIRLS! BLEACH SKIN WITH LEMON

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well and you have a quarter pint of harmless and delightful lemon bleach. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day, then shortly note the beauty and whiteness of your skin.

Famous stage beauties use this lemon lotion to bleach and bring that soft, clear, rosy-white complexion, also as a freckle, sunburn, and tan bleach because it doesn't irritate.

GAME WARDEN ASKS CO-OPERATION

Urges Good Citizens To Report Violation of Game Laws—Same as Other Statutes

The Daily Register has received a letter from District Game Warden Sam E. Gentry, of Stanford, appealing for that same degree of co-operation in prosecution of violations of the game laws of Kentucky that good citizens would give in case of other offenses. His letter which will be read with interest, follows:

Stanford, Ky., April 28.
 Editor Daily Register,
 Richmond, Ky.

I want to ask a favor of you through your valued paper, which has always been for the game and fish laws. Every sportsman should report all violators of the game and fish laws. If we are to have good hunting and fishing it is easy enough to seine fish from our public creeks and rivers if the sportsman and farmer refuse to see anything worth describing in court, but it would be a different matter if any responsible person would report them to the proper officials. There should be no distinction between the person who robs the fish streams and one who robs our rural banks. For instance John Doe has evidence against Jim Jones for killing quail out of season, he does not offer this evidence it is because he is either afraid or feels it none of his business. Suppose John caught Jim stealing cattle. He would not rest until he had Jim in jail and his fellow citizens would applaud his spirit of upholding the law. If we are to have more and better hunting and fishing you must have the spirit of John Doe as in the case of the cattle, and report all law violators of the game and fish law. The game warden does the very best he can but he has lots of territory to cover and cannot be everywhere at once. If the fishermen and hunters place any value upon their recreation they should report all violators and not say let the game warden catch them. If your children are to have more and better fishing and hunting you must report all offenders of the game and fish laws, for we now realize what our forefathers did not. The extinction of the passenger pigeon and American bison and other species so few in number that they will never be numerous any more. So if we want better fishing and hunting and all lovers of wild things we must co-operate with the proper officials for the enforcement of the game laws, or the rest of our game birds will go the way of the bison and passenger pigeons. For better hunting and fishing, I am yours.

B. F. GENTRY,
 District Warden.

OWSLEY FARMER'S SUCCESS WITH REDS

(By Associated Press)
 Booneville, Ky., May 2—S. J. Herndon, Owsley county farmer, has demonstrated to farmers in this section of the state what can be done with farm poultry flock when it is properly cared for and managed, according to County Agent P. M. Frye. Two years ago Mr. Frye assisted Mr. Herndon in getting a start with pure bred poultry, Rhode Island Reds being used as the foundation stock. In one month this year he marketed more than 100 dozen of eggs in addition to those used for hatching purposes on his own farm, according to Mr. Frye. The result of the project has been that Mr. Herndon is now a booster of pure bred poultry and an enthusiastic man in helping other farmers in this section of the state get a similar start, it was added.

(By Associated Press)

Frankfort, Ky., May 2—Kentucky farmers will be given a chance to exchange or sell anything from a pair of shoes or a sewing machine to a mowing machine, a stallion or a farm, thru the agency of a new department that is being inaugurated by Commissioner of Agriculture W. C. Hanna.

The Commissioner has just had blanks printed and is sending them to farmers thruout the state for listing of the things they want to sell, exchange or buy. A weekly publication carrying the lists of things for sale or the needs of the farmers will be issued and mailed to farmers on the mailing list.

While the work will, for the present, be confined to selling and exchanging between farmers, eventually it is hoped that it will work into a real marketing bureau where the producer and consumer will be brought directly together. There are no real marketing laws in Kentucky as some other states have and the department has no way to check on supplies and prices after they leave the farm.

Some of the county farm bureaus, such as the Jefferson county organization, have been conducting exchange lists for past months. In the publications, the most of which are simply mimeographed sheets, the farmers list the things they want to sell and exchange such as setting of eggs, machinery, cows, hogs and horses and in fact anything of use on the farm.

Fordson TRACTOR

Henry Ford Was Right When He Said:

"The Tractor will enable the farmer to work fewer hours in the day, giving him more time to enjoy life. I believe the tractor will make farming what it ought to be—the most pleasant, the most healthful, the most profitable business on earth."

This tractor has done much—very much—in bringing true Mr. Ford's prophecy; for in it is a machine which has harnessed one of the most dependable, efficient, adaptable, economical sources of power in the world—a machine that saves from thirty to fifty per cent of the farmer's time—a machine which many farmers claim plows, harrows or drills as much ground in the same time as four, six or even eight horses. And more—a machine that takes care of every power job on the farm.

Call and let's talk it over, or telephone or drop us a card and we will bring the facts to you.

Doctor at 82 Finds Mothers Prefer His Formula to New-Fangled Salts And Coal Tar Remedies for Babies

Judgment of 1892 vindicated by world's approval of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, a simple vegetable compound for constipation—So safe thousands give it to babies in arms—Now has largest sale in the world.

WHEN a man is in the 83rd year of his age, as I am, there are certain things he has learned that only time can teach him. The basis of treating sickness has not changed since I left Medical College in 1875, nor since I placed on the market the laxative prescription I had used in my practice, known to druggists and the public since 1892, as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

From a recent portrait of
DR. W. B. CALDWELL
Founder of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin
Born Shelbyville, Mo., 1839

Then the treatment of constipation, biliousness, headaches, mental depression, indigestion, sour stomach and other indispositions that result from constipation was entirely by means of simple vegetable laxatives, herbs and roots. These are still the basis of my Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which is a combination of Egyptian Senna and other mild laxative herbs with pepsin.

Recently new medicines have been brought out for constipation that contain calomel, which is mercury, salts of various kinds, minerals, and coal tar. These are drastic purges, many of them dangerous, and the medical profession is warning the public against them. Certain coal tar products will depress the heart; certain salts give rise to intestinal poisoning, impaction and rupture of the intestines. If grown people want to use them no one can deny them the privilege, but they should never be given to children.

The simpler the remedy for constipation, the safer for the child and for you, and the better for the general health of all. And as you can get results with a mild and safe way by using Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, why take chances with pills and powders and strong drugs, even if disguised in candy? My remedy, too, costs less than most others, only about a cent a dose. A bottle such as you can find in any drug store, will last a family several months, and all can use it. It is good for the babe in arms because pleasant to the taste, gentle in action, and free from narcotics. In the proper dose, given in the directions, it is equally effective at all ages. Elderly people will find it especially ideal.

The formula of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is on the cover of every bottle, and the ingredients have the endorsement of the U. S. Pharmacopoeia.

$10,000 Worth of Syrup Pepsin Free
In remembrance of my 83rd birthday I have set aside the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars to be given away in half-ounce bottles of my Syrup Pepsin. Only one Free Trial bottle to a family. All are consigned now and then, and here is an opportunity for you and others to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin FREE OF CHARGE. Ask for your free bottle today, simply sending name and address to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 514 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Do not postpone this.

AT THE MOVIES

Excellent Cast In "From the Ground Up"

Tom Moore is given excellent support in "From the Ground Up" the Goldwyn picture at the opera house tonight. The cast includes De Witt C. Jennings, known as one of the finest actors of his type on the screen; Hardee Kirkland, a powerful actor of heavier roles; Darrell Foss, as a polished "villain" and Helen Chadwick as the star's leading lady. Miss Chadwick needs no introduction, after her splendid performances in recent Goldwyn pictures by Rupert Hughes. With a good story and an excellent cast, directed by one of filmdom's cleverest picture makers, Mason Hopper, "From the Ground Up" contains all the elements of a first class photoplay.

"The Restless Sex" Brilliant
The combination of Robert W. Chambers, Marion Davies, and Joseph Urban has helped to make "The Restless Sex" coming to the local theatres Wednesday, one of the most lavishly artistic pictures ever produced. The story was adapted from Mr. Chambers' recent successful novel of the same name. Joseph Urban, who has designed the scenery for the Follies and other elaborate Broadway spectacles, designed the "sets" for "The Restless Sex." Ralph Kellard and Carlyle Blackwell play the leading male roles.

Judge J. S. Miller and family, of Barbourville, have taken possession of their residence on Lancaster avenue, recently purchased from Mrs. T. J. Smith.

NEW SERUM MAKES YOU TELL THE TRUTH

Dallas, Texas, May 2—Authorities here are planning additional tests with "truth serum" the newly discovered preparation which, when injected into the blood of a criminal, its discoverers say, renders him powerless to lie.

Already two formal tests have convinced many officials that the serum will work. But more tests are planned to demonstrate beyond a doubt the efficacy of the drug.

The active basis of the drug is scopolamin, the substance used to induce "twilight sleep," an aid to painless childbirth. Its mental effect seems to be producing paralysis of imagination, rendering the patient incapable of telling anything but the truth.

Subjects for the recent tests in the county jail here submitted themselves voluntarily for the experiments. The tests were carried out under the supervision of prison officials and physicians.

One of the subjects was W. S. Scrivner, convicted of complicity in a postoffice robbery here. A dose of the drug was injected into the arm of Scrivner and District Attorney Maury Hughes questioned him.

"Did you rob Guy's pharmacy?" the district attorney asked. "No, I don't even know where it is."

Scrivner was sentenced to prison for this robbery, but always had maintained his innocence. "Who robbed the Honda Bank?" the district attorney continued.

Scrivner gave the names of five men. While conscious he had refused to give this information. The other test subject was Walter Smith, negro, accused of murder.

The district attorney questioned Smith regarding the murder with which he was charged. Smith maintained his innocence.

"He told a clearer story under the influence of the drug than when conscious," Hughes said. "If witnesses against him do not give more information at the preliminary hearing, I shall dismiss the murder charge."

Physicians who witnessed the tests declare that further tests will reveal startling developments—that the truth serum may be the greatest medicolegal discovery since Bertillon classified finger prints.

"Truth serum" was discovered by a Texas doctor who refused to make his name public until the tests are conclusive, because of medical ethics. He was present at the tests.

Here's how he tells of his discovery:

"I noticed women under the influence of twilight sleep would tell things without stimulation of the imagination.

"They'd tell only what they were asked and the will to invent things seemed paralyzed. I made several tests. I became convinced of the value of scopolamin as a legal aid."

District Attorney Hughes is optimistic over the outcome of the tests.

"While alcohol, chloroform and ether induce talkativeness, the patient only raves in a sort of temporary insanity," Hughes

EASTERN WINS FROM CAMPUS STARS

Eastern added another victory
to her string Monday afternoon
when she defeated the Campus
All Stars by a score of 6 to 5 on the Normal diamond. The All Star team was composed of players who are at present or were at one time connected with the school. This nine played a fast game and it was the best game seen here this season. The All Stars took the lead in the first round and held it until the seventh inning. They added two more runs in the third while Eastern scored one tally in both the third and fourth rounds. The score remained at 3 to 2 until the last half of the seventh when Eastern got busy and scored two runs which made the score 4 to 3 in their favor. Not to be outdone, the All Stars added two in the first half of the eighth and recaptured the lead. This ended their scoring, but Hembree's men annexed the contest when they showed over two other runs in their half of the eighth.
Lewis was on the hill for the All Stars while Welch worked his first game in the box for Eastern. Hembree introduced a new player to the fans in Short, who played at short. This he did without committing an error. Short also contributed two singles in three times up. He looks like a real ball player who will help Hembree greatly. The score.

not guilty, except Wingate, who

The still was located in a hol-

set it up, made the mash boxes

himself. Trials were set for the

Liver to Action

NR Overcomes Bilioussness, Constipation, Sick Headache, Quickly. No Griping or Pain. Guaranteed.

The organs of digestion, assimilation and elimination—the stomach,
liver and bowels—are closely allied,
and the proper action of any of these organs is largely dependent upon the correct functioning of all the others.
"Whipping" your liver into action
with calomel or forcing your bowels
with irritating laxatives or strong cathartics is a great mistake. A better, safer plan is strengthening and toning the whole digestive and eliminatory system with Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets), which not only brings immediate relief, but genuine and lasting benefit. It acts on the stomach, liver, bowels and kidneys, improves digestion and assimilation, overcomes bilioussness, corrects constipation and quickly relieves sick headache.

Get your system thoroughly cleansed
and purified for good; stomach, liver and bowels working together in vigorous harmony, and you will not have to take medicine every day—just take one NR Tablet occasionally to keep your system in good condition and always feel your best. Remember it is easier and cheaper to keep well than it is to get well.

Get a 25c box and try it with the understanding that it must give you greater relief and benefit than any laxative or liver medicine you ever used,
or no pay. Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) is sold in solid, genuine and recommended by your druggist.

SURE TO HELP SICK WOMEN

Mrs. Baker, So Much Benefited by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Anxious to Help Others

Lebanon, Indiana.—"I was complet-ly run down from women's troubles and for a long time was hardly able to do my work. I had some friends who had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and they told me about it. I know what it has done for me and I recommend it to others, as I am sure
it will be a great help to all sick women. It is a wonderful medicine, and I give you personal testimony and my photograph."—Mrs. EMMA BAKER, 310 S.
East St., Lebanon, Indiana.

These letters recommending Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound ought to convince women of the great worth of this medicine in the treatment of ailments to which they are often subject.
Mrs. Baker calls it "a wonderful medicine." "If you are suffering from troubles women often have, or feel all run down, without any ambition or energy for your regular work, take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It is a natural restorative and should help you as it has Mrs. Baker and many,
many other women.

'SHINER KNOCKED OUT BY HIS OWN BRAND

Danville, Ky., May 2—Four Boyle county farmers were arrested and a 40-gallon still was destroyed by a raiding party composed of U. S. Commissioner
W. S. Lawwill, Joe Kavanaugh, and William Kinnaird, federal prohibition agents; Folk Critch-
field, Danville policeman, and R.
H. Sanford, of Lancaster, at Johnson's Bank, two miles south of Parksville, and 10 miles from Danville, on the alleged premises of William Price. Seven hundred gallons of mash were poured out by the officials.

Will Wingate, of Junction City,
Will Price, W. C. Brewer and Alex Camden of the Parkville
neighborhood, were arrested on a charge of conspiring to operate a moonshine still. All pleaded
not guilty, except Wingate, who claimed to be the sole owner and operator of the still.

The still was located in a hollow, about 400 yards from the Price home, concealed behind trees and bushes. All of the men except Price, were watching the still when the officers surprised them. After the men had been searched and had been lined up to start to town, Wingate, officers say, picked up one of the jars of moonshine on the ground nearby and took two large drinks
—when the officers reached town
with their prisoners Wingate was unconscious and had to be carried into the jail. In his preliminary trial before Commissioner Lawwill he seemed to have recovered. He informed the court that he had found the still,
set it up, made the mash boxes
and was operating the plant by himself. Trials were set for the Richmond term of federal court which convenes the second Monday in November.

BOOTLEGGERS IN RADIO BUSINESS, TOO

(By Associated Press)
Chicago, May 2—A new infant industry, the manufacture of radio equipment, has sprung up with an amazing growth within a year and much of it within a few recent weeks. From a few manufacturing shops a year ago to thousands now, an increase of sixty thousand per cent in demand in two years, a business in which both boys and great manufacturers are taking profits; all this is the romance of the new industry.

The demand which called it into existence is at present as tremendous as it has been sudden.
The new, small concerns manufacturing radio supplies are estimated by the Radio Corporation of America as numbering thousands. Figures of the same corporation show that whereas two years ago 4,000 tubes a year
were in demand, this year probably 200,000 tubes a month will be called for.

"There are more bootleggers
in the radio business than in the whisky business," one dealer asserted. "People get hold of the parts and sell them for exorbitant prices; I have known a single tube which is regularly sold for $5, to bring $15. Some of these spurious dealers come in and try to bribe our clerks to get them parts."

PRICES FIRMER ON COURT DAY SALES

Monday's crowd in town was a big one and trading is reported as being unusually brisk.
Prices on all livestock seemed to be higher than a month ago. The East End stock yards report 3-200 cattle on the market, with top prices running about 8 1-2 cents a pound and on down, according to quality. There were about 800 sheep at these yards, the tops selling at $8 a head. A carload of stock hogs averaged 10 cents a pound. The demand for mules and horses was slow, however. At the Madison yards 1,500 cattle were reported, prices ranging from 4c to 8c a pound;
about 600 sheep sold from $4 to $6, it was said.

ARGENTINE HAS 132- YEAR-OLD NEGRO

(By Associated Press)

Buenos Aires, May 2—Antonio Rosas, a negro who is reputed to have been born 132 years ago in the African Congo, is still earning a living in Buenos Aires
as a medicine man and ticket seller. He was not too old to put up a fight when three men held him up and robbed him a few days ago, but told a reporter he would have made a better showing if he had not taken a drop too much. Antonio does not yet believe in prohibition.

Antonio claims to have been captured in the Congo when a child by French slave traders.
The French ship on which he and other negroes were placed was pursued and captured by an English vessel and taken to Madeira.
He was brought to Argentina at the age of eight. He saw the birth of the Argentine nation in 1810 and slavery abolished in 1813. In later years he adopted the surname of Rosas after the

EASTERN WINS FROM CAMPUS STARS

Eastern added another victory to her string Monday afternoon when she defeated the Campus All Stars by a score of 6 to 5 on the Normal diamond. The All Star team was composed of players who are at present or were at one time connected with the school. This nine played a fast game and it was the best game seen here this season. The All Stars took the lead in the first round and held it until the seventh inning. They added two more runs in the third while Eastern scored one tally in both the third and fourth rounds. The score remained at 3 to 2 until the last half of the seventh when Eastern got busy and scored two runs which made the score 4 to 3 in their favor. Not to be outdone, the All Stars added two in the first half of the eighth and recaptured the lead. This ended their scoring, but Hembree's men annexed the contest when they shovelled over two other runs in their half of the eighth.

Lewis was on the hill for the All Stars while Welch worked his first game in the box for Eastern. Hembree introduced a new player to the fans in Short who played at short. This he did without committing an error. Short also contributed two singles in three times up. He looks like a real ball player who will help Hembree greatly. The score.
